

Sheffield's Shocking Past

W

Saturday, 7th July, 2pm-4pm

The Sheffield Flood of 1864, the single greatest man-made disaster in Victorian England, is well chronicled but scores of arguably more shocking episodes have lain largely undiscovered for decades, until now...

Sheffield's Shocking Past is based on extensive research by life-long Sheffields Chris Hobbs, ably assisted by author Matthew Bell, who provide an amazing insight into the more gruesome and grizzly episodes of Victorian Sheffield.

This event is free to attend. Please contact the stores if you have any enquiries.

Waterstones, 24-26 Orchard Square, Sheffield. Tel: 0114 272 8971
Follow us on Twitter @WStoneSheffield or on Facebook
www.facebook.com/WaterstonesSheffield